

To Many Pet's

Charlie Fox is a small, kind and caring kid. He is 8 years old. He lives in a small country town called Dunaju. Dunaju is a peaceful town where all the kids get along. Charlie's parents do not like animals one tiny bit but Charlie loves them and really wants a pet when he grows up.

When Charlie get's older it comes to the time where he can make the decision to get a pet. Because Charlie loves animals he decides to get a golden retriever. He decides to call it Raff. He takes great care of Raff and treats him like he's a human because he believes that's the way they deserve to be treated. Charlie loved Raff and Raff loved Charlie, that's the way it was. Charlie decided to get another pet. He get's two Guiney Pigs called Leo and Louie. The Guiney Pigs loved their home and they felt like someone actually cared for them. Charlie believes that he can take care of one more pet so he gets a bunny rabbit. He calls it Scruff. Scruff gets his own cage and his own everything and Scuff loves that. Charlie thinks long and hard about getting another pet since he loves animals. He comes to the decision that he is going to get another pet. He gets a chocolate Labrador and calls it Henry.

Charlie gets married and has a family whom he truly loves. He starts to realise that having five pets to look after, while having his kids to look after as well, is a big challenge and he is getting quite stressed out about it.

He is all over the shop with work. It's also too much to pay for school fees as well as vet fees for the animals. At this point in his life he is very stuck and puzzled.

Charlie comes up with an idea to make a petting zoo. He names it "Too Many Pets". This way he can make money and still keep his pets. He makes the money by going to different schools and entertaining kids. His children love animals as well so they help look after the petting zoo. When Charlie gets older he has to hand the business down to his kids and then Too Many Pets is handed down through the generations.

The rest of Charlie's life is stress free and he is grateful for that!
